PROCLAMATION

For many years it has been the established custom to set aside annually a day devoted to the honoring of Mothers.

Mother is a word that sings of Courage, of Sacrifice, and Everliving Hope. It sings of depth of Love past Human Understanding. Its music bears to heights unknown.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 12th, as and ask all citizens of the State of South Dakota to devote their efforts on this day to reverential expressions of love and devotion to the greatest of all ideals.
